

Special Tour Kebnekaise

This challenging tour is meant for advanced adventurers who may have already been on tour.

The first part is equal to Expedition Jukkasjärvi.

Yet at Jukkasjärvi the route continues to the west, and goes back into the wild mountains.

We reach Kebnekaise, which is the highest mountain top in northern Sweden, and then turn northwards to return to Innset.

About a third of the nights will be spent in tents, the rest in cabins.

Length: 16 days
(13 days on expedition with the dogs)

2010 Dates: 3rd to 18th April

Cost: £4850 per person

Included: Transfers from/to Bardufoss airport or the bus station at Setermoen. Full board accommodation at Inset and in tents and cabins in the mountains, tour guide, own dog team with sledge and equipment, reindeer fur and snow shoes. If required you can also have the use of a warm oversuit, winter boots and an extra sleeping bag.

Not included: Flights, travel insurance.
